

Main - Geocaching

Geocaching is fun! It's modern day treasure hunting. It's like being a pirate searching for buried treasure, only the treasure isn't buried and you need a GPS device to find it. Where is the X that marks the spot? It's a set of GPS coordinates that you obtain from <http://www.geocaching.com/>.

I've created a number of travel bugs:
